Jan., 14th	4	12mo ...	1st ...	12,000	ditto ...	.....	ditto ...	Such things as houses, lands, and gardens can be had for money, but not such things as peace of mind, salvation, &c., which are God's gift to man through Jesus Christ.	3992
„ 14th	4	12mo ...	1st ...	12,000	ditto ..	.....	ditto ...	An adequate idea of the value of the soul can only be formed by first considering what value man sets upon things so inferior to the soul as eyes, ears, &c. Men should therefore always look to the welfare of the soul, which can only be secured by faith in Jesus Christ.	3993
„ 14th	4	12mo ...	1st ...	12,000	ditto ...	.....	ditto ...	The mere knowledge of Christ's life and mission will save no soul. If a soul is to be saved, it is necessary that besides that knowledge there should be faith in Jesus Christ.	3994
„ 15th	12	12mo ...	2nd ...	5,000	ditto ..	.....	ditto ...	There is good evidence in support of the story of Christ's life, but no evidence to show that Krishna did all that he is stated to have done.	3995
„ 9th	4	12mo ...	2nd ...	5,000	ditto ...	.....	ditto ...	Argues that salvation cannot be obtained by anything that man can himself do. For what man does is done with such mental and bodily powers as God has given to him, and therefore any merit which may be supposed to spring from man's acts must belong to God and not to man. Man owes his salvation therefore, not to his own efforts, but to the sacrifice which Christ made of himself for man's sake.	3996

„ 7th	4	12mo ...	1st ...	7,000	ditto ...	.....	ditto ...	In self-sacrifice is found the best proof that one can give of one's love for another. The best proof of God's love for man is found in the sacrifice which he has made of his beloved son, Jesus Christ.	4000
„ 12th	4	12mo ...	1st ...	12,000	ditto ...	.....	ditto ...	For those whose souls are not in a state of peace, the most welcome thing on earth should be Christ's well-known invitation 'come to me'; for if they do come to him, the promise 'I will give you rest' would be sure to be fulfilled.	4001
„ 7th	8	12mo ...	1st ...	5,000	ditto ...	.....	ditto ...	Jesus Christ is or should be every body's delight. The people of India are therefore exhorted to listen with patience and respect to all who speak to them about him, for whoever speaks to them of Christ is not their enemy, as they usually suppose, but their friend. They should also learn to believe in Christ.	4002

1884. Dec., 14th	28	9" × 6"	1st ...	1,000	ditto ...	0 2 0	.....	It would seem that in some East Bengal districts at any rate the umbilical cord is cut, sometimes by a dry nurse and in some other instances by some member of the family in which a child-birth has taken place. The latter custom is, however, regarded with disfavour, and the families in which it prevails are often subjected to great social penalties. The writer of this tract is of opinion, however, that this should not be, and the cutting of the umbilical cord by a member of a family is not so wrong an action that it should be attended with social disabilities.	332

The editor, who is apparently not a professional man, has become a great believer in the efficacy of the homœpathic system of treatment since his recovery, under that system of treatment, from a long and obstinate illness. He has therefore started this journal with the view of enabling all classes of people in this country to acquire some knowledge of homœopathy and use it themselves in the treatment of diseases.	1323

The writer of one of the papers in this number thinks that the physical weakness of Bengalis of the present time arises not from early marriage and polygamy as such, but from the fall of the general moral tone of Bengali society, which leads to the disregard and non-observance of those customs and usages which were strictly followed in former times in order to render those institutions innocuous.	1324

Jan., 5th	32	8vo ...	1st ...	1,000	Printed	0 3 0	Gagan Chandra Hom, 50, Sitárám Ghosh's Street, Calcutta.	Although devoted to the discussion of subjects of all kinds, religion receives more attention in this paper than other topics, the main object of the periodical being to oppose the Hindu religious revival which is advocated in the Nabajiban and the Prachar.	1332
„ 2nd	48	8vo ...	1st ...	800	ditto ...	0 8 0	Jogendranáth Bidyábhusan. Mymensingh.	This paper, always conducted upon ultra-radical principles in the departments of religion and sociology, is now opposing the Hindu religious revival.	1333
1884. Dec., 1st	24	8vo ...	1st ...	500	ditto ...	0 1 9	Bipinbihari Datta.	The writer of the opening article says that Hindu society, though based upon sound and unalterable principles, requires reforms in particular directions, and that if those reforms are not made the consequences may be very serious.	1334

May, 20th	32	.....	1st ...	500	ditto ...	0 4 0	Abu Muhammad Abdulla, Egypt.	In interpreting many parts of the Koran, some Muhammadan sects reject the plain meanings of the words used therein and attach other meanings to them. This practice is condemned by other Muhammadan sects, who consider it improper to take the words used in the Koran in any other than the sense which they ordinarily bear. The writer of this tract holds this latter opinion, which he has accordingly explained and illustrated.	9

1885.	Pages.					Rs. A. P.
April, 30th	56	12mo ...	2nd ...	1,500	Printed	0 8 0	Umesh Chandra Bhattáchárya, Calcutta.	Often noticed ...	4075
„ 7th	31	8vo ...	1st ...	3,000	ditto ...	0 2 0	Sarat Chandra Bhattáchárya, 107, Garánhátá Street, Calcutta.	Based upon the well-known story in the Ramayan and designed for ill-educated and orthodox readers.	4076
June, 4th	108	12mo rl.	4th ...	2,000	ditto ..	0 12 0	Sarat Chandra Bhattáchárya, Calcutta.	The well-known story of the self-immolation of Sati at the sacrifice performed by her father King Daksha is described in this book. The work is of the same class as the last-mentioned one.	4077
Mar., 15th	68	12mo rl.	3rd ...	2,000	ditto ...	0 1 6	Trailokyanáth Datta.	The well-known Persian tale is related in the form of a dialogue for ill-educated readers.	4078
April, 29th	40	8vo dy.	1st ...	500	ditto ...	0 4 0	.....	This is a prose translation of Kálidás's Sakuntalá brought down to the prelude to the 6th Act in this part.	4079
„ 8th	82	8vo ...	1st ...	500	ditto ...	0 10 0	Surendranáth Mukharji, 4, Darjipárá Street, Calcutta.	Based upon the well-known mythological story of the descent of the goddess Ganga on earth in the form of the river of that name at the prayer of Bhagirath.	4080
Mar., 9th	10	12mo dy.	1st ...	1,000	ditto ...	0 0 6	Matilál Basu, 202, Cornwallis Street, Calcutta.	The two friends in this story are two schoolboys. One of them is scolded by his father for neglecting his studies, and he therefore commits suicide. Unable to bear the shock, his friend also kills himself. Probably a juvenile composition.	4081
Feb., 11th	46	12mo ...	1st ...	1,000	ditto ...	0 3 0	.....	The principal characters in this farce are some young Bengali Brahmos and Anglicised Babus, one of whom elopes with a friend's wife, and another, who is already married, endeavours to marry another girl who has been stolen away from her parents by her own maternal uncle. The author intends to say that modern Bengali enlightenment means the imitation of English habits and manners and indulgence in the worst vices under cover of the Brahmo name.	4082
May, 8th	26	12mo dy.	1st ...	500	ditto ...	0 8 0	Ashutosh Basu, Calcutta.	An incestuous connection between two cousins, which is considered to be owing to Kulinism, the great stain upon Hindu society in Bengal, is described in this work. The connection between the crime and Kulinism is not, however, quite clear.	4083
„ 5th	22	12mo ...	1st ...	500	ditto ...	0 1 0	Nanilál Dás De, Calcutta.	Some Bengali schoolboys, who deceive their simpleminded parents by making them believe that they are well-behaved and attentive to their studies, indulge in debauchery of the worst kind, and are taken up by the police in a row which they create at the house of a public woman.	4084
Mar., 10th	18	12mo ...	1st ...	1,000	ditto ...	0 2 0	Matilál Basu, 202, Cornwallis Street, Calcutta.	Two Bengali schoolboys, who whilst apparently engaged in reading for a University examination, are really busy concerting measures for running away with a young widow.	4085
April, 8th	36	12mo ...	1st ...	3,000	ditto ...	0 2 0	S. C. Sen and Brothers, 112, Upper Chitpur Road, Calcutta.	A Bengali Babu, who has obtained the title of Rajah Bahadur by spending much money, is constrained to borrow more money in order to live in a style befitting a holder of that title, and is therefore soon reduced to a situation of great difficulty and ignominy. The author means to insinuate that a title is not a distinction but an encumbrance, and seekers and holders of titles are very foolish and worthless men.	4086

May, 13th	84	12mo dy.	1st ...	1,000	ditto ...	1 0 0	.....	This work is based on the chapter on the emotions in Dr. Bain's Mental Science, and contains accordingly an enumeration and analysis of the emotions which	4252 arise in the heart of man. Nothing is stated in it about the heart of woman specifically or in contradistinction to the heart of man. Indeed, all contradistinction of that kind is denied, and the wording of the title of the book is explained by the statement that a reference to woman is considered likely to attract attention to a study which would be otherwise avoided as dry and uninteresting.
